The type of account you select may determine how property passes on your death. Your will may not control the disposition of funds held in some of the following forms of account ownership. You may choose to designate one or more convenience signers on an account, even if the account is not a convenience account. A designated convenience signer may make transactions on your behalf during your lifetime, but does not own the account during your lifetime. The designated convenience signer owns the account on your death only if the convenience signer is also designated as P.O.D. payee or trust account beneficiary. The selection you make below will apply to all the accounts listed in the "ACCOUNT TYPE" section.
